OFFICE OF THE CHIEF OF POLICE

2010 INTERNAL AFFAIRS STATISTICS

The Rutgers University Police Department is committed to providing law enforcement and security services that are fair, effective, and impartially applied. To help achieve this, all department personnel including both sworn officers and civilian employees are held to the highest standards of conduct and are expected to treat all individuals with respect and to acknowledge the rights of all persons. Adherence to these standards, by personnel motivated by a moral and professional obligation to perform their job to the best of their ability, is the ultimate objective of this agency.

It is the policy of the Rutgers University Police Department to accept and investigate all complaints of alleged personnel misconduct or wrongdoing from all persons who wish to file a complaint regardless of the hour or day of the week. This includes reports from anonymous sources, juveniles, intoxicated persons, and persons under arrest or in custody. The Police Department will conduct a thorough and impartial examination of the available pertinent information and will notify you of the results of the investigation. Employee misconduct or violations of departmental policies or procedures will be addressed and corrective actions will be taken as appropriate within the department’s policy and procedure.

The Internal Affairs function is responsible for investigating all misconduct complaints made against members of the Rutgers University Police Department. Due to the unique mission of the University Police Department, the Internal Affairs Function is tasked with handling complaints from the public regarding employee’ conduct, as well as allegations of criminal conduct by members. In 2010, members in the New Brunswick Division were involved in nearly 70 thousand police/citizen contacts. While many of these interactions were routine; many also involved stressful and critical situations.

The department takes the investigation of complaints seriously and acknowledges that our agency’s internal affairs procedure is a critical function of the police department. A thorough internal affairs procedure provides guidance and direction to our investigating supervisors. Additionally our agency progressively trains our supervisors in various aspects of internal affairs so that an investigation is thorough and in comportment with applicable state law and nationally accepted best practices.

As Chief of Police, I take pride in the fact that our self-initiated internal affairs investigations numbers are indicative of a police department that takes proactive steps towards identifying potential problems within the department and administering corrective action according to agency guidelines, with the overall goal of improving the performance of the department. I invite you to review our internal affairs statistics from the previous calendar year. This summary report provides the number and type of internal affairs cases received for the year. These complaints are categorized as follows:

- Crime: Complaint regarding commission of an illegal act that constitutes a violation of the criminal code including disorderly and petty disorderly persons offenses.
- Excessive Force: Complaint regarding the use or threatened use of excessive force against a person.
- Improper Arrest: Complaint that the restraint of a person’s liberty was improper or unjust, or violated the person’s civil rights.
- Improper Entry: Complaint that entry into a building or onto property was improper or that excessive force was used against property to gain entry.
- Improper Search: Complaint that the search of a person or property was improper, unjust, violated established agency procedures, or violated a person’s civil rights.
- Differential Treatment: Complaint that the taking, failure to take, or method of police action was predicated upon factors that should have been irrelevant such as race, appearance, age, or sex.
- Serious Rule Infractions: Complaint for conduct such as insubordination, drunkenness on duty, sleeping on duty, false statements or malingering.
- Repeated Minor Rule Infractions: Repeated complaint for conduct such as untidiness, tardiness, faulty driving, or failure to follow procedures.

Additionally the outcome of the investigation, also known as the disposition, is provided for each category.

- Exonerated: The alleged incident did occur, but the actions of the employee were justified, legal, and proper.
- Sustained: The investigation disclosed sufficient evidence to prove the allegation, and the actions of the employee violated a provision of the agency’s rules, regulations or procedures.
- Not Sustained: The investigation failed to disclose sufficient evidence to clearly prove or disprove the allegation.
- Unfounded: The alleged incident did not occur.
- Administratively Closed: The complaint or investigation is closed prior to reaching a disposition.

Thank you for taking the time to review this report and the attached statistics.
